

Biosketch - Herve BUISSON

Herve BUISSON is currently, since 2005, the Vice-President of Technologies for Veolia Water - Solutions and Technologies, in the Americas, and a member of the Executive Committee of Veolia Water - Solutions and Technologies Americas. Prior to joining this position he was Managing Director of Veolia Water R&D centre near Paris (a 40 M$/year leading water and waste water private research entity).

Prior to joining Veolia Water in 1996, Herve BUISSON worked as Program Manager with Environment Canada's Wastewater Technology Centre (WTC), in Burlington, Ontario for 7 years .

He has been involved in process development for water and wastewater treatment over the past 25 years, with a specific expertise in Membrane Processes and their integration into novel water and wastewater management schemes.

Long time NAMS, EMS, EDS, IWA member, he is acting as expert advisor for organisations such as Water Research Foundation, European Economic Commission – Research Directorate, Middle East Desalination Research Centre, Canadian National Research Council. He is a frequent speaker in various water and wastewater events.

He is holding a Chemical Engineering Degree from the National Polytechnical Institute of Toulouse in 1985, with a Specialization in Bio-Chemical and Environmental Engineering obtained at Ecole Polytechnique of Montreal and McMaster University both in Canada.